Seven signs Mark Ferguson.

Nine news anchor, Mark Ferguson, has decided to transfer to the winning team at Seven.

He will join Seven News when his contract with Nine expires towards the end of this year.

CEO of Seven Media Group, David Leckie, confirmed the appointment today.

Mr Leckie said: "Ian Ross, Chris Bath and Samantha Armytage are brilliant. Mark is Nine's best news anchor. We clearly have the best in the business.

"It will be great to have Mark onboard with our market-leading news and public affairs teams.

"Although we are not announcing his job description just yet, I know we can offer him something far more challenging and exciting than THIS Afternoon. We're number one. And, unlike some, we don't need to toss money at viewers to persuade them to watch our news and public affairs and breakfast television programmes."

Ian Ross said: "I welcome Mark's decision to come to Seven. It'll be fun working with him again."
